SPONSORSHIP AGREEMENT

Purpose

Beginning in 2016, the St. Louis Equity in Entrepreneurship Collective (STLEEC or Collective) has operated as a cross-sector collaborative working to improve racial and gender equity in St. Louis' entrepreneurship ecosystem. Since inception, the Collective has engaged relevant stakeholders around its vision that an entrepreneur's success will not be pre-determined by their race or gender in the St. Louis region.

Priorities

The Collective will

- coordinate equity trainings;
- facilitate equity audits;
- grow members' knowledge and skills in entrepreneurship;
- increase investors' understanding of unique barriers to raising capital as faced by entrepreneurs who identify as a woman and/or person of color; and
- help entrepreneur support organizations (ESOs) increase the number of people who identify as a woman and/or person of color who participate in their programs.

Expectations

As a Collective sponsor, please expect:

- monthly collective update emails
- networking opportunities;
- access to information and resources, including timely communication from the Collective;
- ability to share information with others through communication channels as established;
- opportunity to vote on important Collective decisions; and
- a choice in annual sponsorship levels that includes cross-promotional opportunities at the

The Collective expects sponsors to:

- have an interest in improving racial and gender equity in St. Louis' entrepreneurship ecosystem;
- participate in Collective meetings, trainings, and other activities, including occasional polls and/or surveys;
- join an Action Team;
- consider nominating self and/or others to a Steering Committee position;
- be publicly listed as a sponsor and provide a logo (if available) for inclusion on the STLEEC website and other collateral materials for the Collective; and
- promote the Collective's work to personal and professional networks.
